COACHES run daily in summer from the Ausable Chasm Hotel to (32 M.) Lake Placid (p. 189; fare $4), vià (31/2 M.) Kesseville, (13 M.) Ausable Forks Station (p. 160), and (21 M.) Wilmington (p. 190).

c. From Westport to Elizabethtown, Keene Valley, and Lake Placid.

Adirondack Lodge. Indian Pass.

Westport (*Westport Inn, overlooking the steamboat-wharf, $2-4; Richards, $2; The Westport, at the rail, station, not to be confounded with the Westport Inn, $2, unpretending) is a village of 563 inhab., on the W. shore of Lake Champlain, 25 M. to the S. of Port Kent (p. 187) and 10 M. to the N. of Port Henry (p. 203). It is the chief gateway to, perhaps, the finest part of the Adirondacks, coaches running hence, via ($9 M.) Elizabeltown ($1), to Keene Valley (24 M.; fore $2\sqrt{2}\), Lake Placid (36 M.; $4), and Adirondack Ladge (36 M.; $4\sqrt{2}\). It is within 7\sqrt{2}\ hrs. of New York by fast train (comp. R. 20b; fare $6.81).

The ROAD TO ELIZABETHTOWN (9 M.) is pleasant, but calls for no special remark. — Elizabethtown (600 ft.; Windsor, $3, Mansion Ita., $21/2-3; Maplewood Inn, open the whole year, $2-3), a village with 573 inhab., is prettily situated on the Boquet River, in the well-named Pleasant Valley.

Among the points of interest in the neighbourhood are Cobble Hill (1790 ft.), but to the S.W. of the town, with golf-links; Remer Bill (1970 ft.), to the E.; and 'Hurricane Mt. (1885 ft.), b M. to the W. (cart-road; path to the summit 2 M. more), a fine point of view. On the W. side of Hurricane Mt. is Willey (1971), and is all to the S. Willey (1971), and August Loke.

The *ROAD FROM ELIZABETHTOWN TO LAKE PLACID (28 M.; from which the roads to Keene Valley and Adirondack Lodge diverge) passes through one of the most beautiful parts of the Adirondacks. It leads to the W., passing between Hurricane Mt. (see above) the right and several lower hills on the left, 10 M. Keene Valley (see p. 190) opens to the left. Our road turns N. to (2 M.) Keene Village or Keene Centre (1000 ft.; Hotel, D. 75 c.). Beyond Keene the road turns sharply to the left (S.E.) and ascends to the (4 M.) beautiful *Cascades Lakes (2040 ft. : well stocked with trout), with Pitch Off Mt. (3520 ft.) rising so abruptly to the right as barely to leave room for our passage. Cascade Mt. (4090 ft.) rises equally sheer on the other side of the lakes. The *Cascade Lake House (6 M. from Keene: $3. D. $1) is a favourite resort of fishermen and others. Ahead of us we now obtain a fine *View of the mountains enclosing Lake Placid. - 4 M. Ames's Mountain View House ($2). Among the mountains seen to the S. (left) are Mts. Marcy and McIntyre (p. 193), the two loftiest peaks in the district. At North Elba, about 1 M. farther on, the road to (5 M.) Adirondack Lodge (p. 193) diverges to the left, and after 1 M. more the road through the Wilmington Notch (p. 190) leads to the right. Just beyond this point we cross the Ausable River, and on the left, 1/2 M. farther on, is a sign pointing to (1/2 M.) John Brown's Farm (see below). 1 M. North Elba Post Office, where the road to (2 M.) Lake Placid diverges to the right from the main road, which goes on to (10 M.) Saranac Lake Village (p. 187).

*Lake Placid (1860 ft.), 4 M. long and 2 M. broad, is surrounded by finer and higher mountains than any other of the larger Adirondack lakes, and numerous hotels and cottages have been built on its banks. It contains three islands, *Hawk, *Moose* (owned by the Placid Park Club), and Buck. At its S. end it is closely adjoined by the small *Mirror Lake* (1858 ft.), 1 M. long and 1/3 M. wide. Boating and fishing are carried on on both lakes, and golf-links have been laid out. The beautifully-shaped Whiteface Mt. (see below) is conspicuous at the N.E. end of Lake Placid, while McKen: ie Mt. rises to the W. The *Yiew to the S. includes the following peaks (named from left to right): Gothic, Saddleback, Basin, Marcy, Colden, and McIntyre, with Indian Pass (p. 193) to the right of the last. Small steamers ply on Lake Placid.

Most of the hotels and other houses are clustered round the S. end of Lake Placid and Mirror Lake. "Stem House (1985 Pt.; § 4), on the ridge between the two lakes; Mirror Lake House (83-4), at the S. end of Mirror Lake; Grend View House (83), a small and comfortable house, to the E. of the Stevens Ho.; *Lake Placid House (83), a small and comfortable house, to the E. of the Stevens Ho, with view of both lakes; *Pauiseaumont Ho., to the N. of the last (§ 4.6); White Face Inn, in a sequestered site on the S.W. side of Lake Placid, S3; Caule Rustico, Undervisif ($12.20) per week), W. bank of Lake Placid, The Summer Camp of Mr. E. D. Bardlett, near the White Face Inn, is one of the Placet in the Advancaks.

Excussions. The path to (3 M.; ca. 2 brs.) the top of 'Whiteface Mt. (4870 ft.) begins at the N. end of Take Placid (guide desirable; road in progress). The 'View includes the main Adirondack peaks (8.), Lake (Clamplain (E.), and the Saranac and Tupper Lakes (W.), while on the N. it reaches to Canada and the St. Lawrence. The descent may be made by bridle-path and cart-track to (6 M.) Wilmington (p. 190). — McRenzie Mt. (3190 ft.), may be ascended in 2 brs. (no path). — John Brown's Farm route, see above) is in a louely spot, 3 M. from Lake Placid. The sturyd old

Abolitionist (comp. p. 292) had his home here from 1849 till his death (1859), and now lies buried in a small enclosure near the house, with a huge boulder marking the spot (shown by the present occupant of the house, who has photographs for sale). Adjacent is a monument with the names of twenty persons who bought the John Brown Farm and presented it to the State, to be kept as a public park (1886). Walkers may cut off 2M. of the route to Adjacendez Lodge (p. 183) by descending to the Ausable from John Brown's, crossing the river by stepping-stones, and following a path through the woods, which joins the road in 2M. The BOAD TREDUCK THE WILLINGTON NOTCH TO AUSABLE FORES (26 M) diverges to the left (N) from the road to Elizabethioup at a (26 M.) diverges to the left (N.) from the road to Elizabethtown, at a point 4 M. from Lake Placid (see p. 1.95, coach $2½). The *Notch (10 M.) is a delile on the S.E. flank of Mr. Whiteface (see p. 1.89), through which flows the W. branch of the Ausable, scarcely leaving room for the road. Wilmington (Bliss House, $2), 6 M. farther on, is a good starting-point for an ascent of Whiteface (see p. 139; saddle-horse $4, guide $3). At Ausable Forks (10 M. farther on), where the two branches of the Ausable unite, we reach the railway (see p. 160).

Among the numerous other excursions made from Lake Placid are those to Adirondack Lodge (10 M.; see p. 193) and Keene Valley (21 M.; see below).

**Keene Valley (approaches, see pp. 188, 193), extending for 8 M. to the S. from Keene Village (p. 189), is, in its combination of the gentler and the sterner beauties of scenery and its convenience as a centre for all kinds of excursions, perhaps the most desirable headquarters in the Adirondacks. It is watered by a branch of the Ausable, and is enclosed by two mountain-ranges, including Hopkins Peak, the Giant of the Valley, and Noon Mark on the E., and Mt. Porter, Twin Mts., and the Wolf's Jaws on the W. The autumn colouring of the trees is often rich beyond expression.

The valley is traversed by a good road, which passes various hotels and (5 M.) Keene Valley Village (1630 ft.). The following list of the hotels names them in consecutive order from N. to S., as we penetrate the valley; but them in consecute order from N. to S., as we beneficial the variety four the tourist is advised to fix his quarters as near the head of the valley as possible. Ester House ($3), on the S. bank of the river, at the foot of Prospect Hill, Advended House ($5), to the W. to the village, Tachemus House ($2.3), in the village, to the right, and the head of the valley. St. Hubert's Lubert's Cottage, to the is a large and well-managed house at the head of the valley, occupying the site of the well-known Beede House, which was burned down ing the site of the well-known beege noise, which was burned uown in 1890. It is surrounded by groups of private cottages, many of the occupants of which take their meals at the hotel. The "View is superb. Immediately facing St. Hubert's Inn, to the St., rises Noon Mark, with the long ridge of the Giant and Hopkins Peak to the left and the coni-cal Mt. Colvin to the right. To the N. we look down the Keene Valley, cai m., colvin to the right. To the N. we look down the Keene Valley, and to the S.W. is the road to the Ausable Lakes, between Mt. Colvin and Mt. Resegonia. In front of St. Hubert's Inn lie the St. Hubert Golf. Links. Adjacent is a small circulating library. — On the farm of Glemmere, we the N. and of the right of the results of the St. Th at the N. end of the valley, is the Summer School of Philosophy.

The following Excursions are described with St. Hubert's Inn as centre, but it will be easy to make the necessary rectification for other startrequire that it will be easy of make the necessary rectangular for third starting-points in the valley. Hence Yalley has an excellent Grided Totion, a list of the members of which may be obtained at the hotels. The regular fee is $3 a day for any excursion; a graduated tariff is an obvious desideratum which has not yet been adopted.— Many new trails are being constructed by the Adironalect Trait Improvement Society.

Ausable Lakes, ca. 15 M. (there and back). This is the favourite ex-cursion from Keene Valley and should on no-account be omitted. The lakes are included in the Adirendack Mountain Reserve, a tract of about 40 sq. M. to the S. of Keene Valley, bought and controlled by a company. Ordinary tourists, however, are freely admitted to the Reserve, though none but the authorized guides are permitted to have boats on the upper lake. The entrance to the Reserve is a little to the S.W. of St. Hubert's Inn (toll for carr. $1/2-1, walkers free). A good road, constructed by the company, leads hence to the (31/2 M.) "Lower Ausable Lake (1960 ft.; boat-house, with rimts., boats to hire, etc.), a small sheet of water, about 2 M. long, surrounded by beautifully wooded mountains descending sheer to the water. To the left rises Indian Head (2535 ft; 'View), a knob of Mt. Colvin; to the right are the finely formed Gothics and Mt. Resigning or Sautechi. From the boat-house we may make a trip by boat (1-3 pers. 15 c., each pers. addit. 5 c.) to (10 min.) the landing to Rain-bone Falls, a veil-fall of about 100 ft. (rainbow 12-2 p.m.).] From the upper end of the lake a good trail leads to (11/4 M.) the "Upper Ausable Lake (1990 ft.), which is 13/4 M. long. In the sweep of its wooded shores, and the lovely contour of the lofty mountains that guard it, this lake is probably the most charming in America' (Warner). To the right (named from left to right) are Skylight, Haystack, Mt. Bartlett, Basen, Saddleback, Gothic, and Resegonia; to the left, Colvin and the Boreas Range. (Mt. Marcy is not seen from either lake.) The lake is surrounded with camps belonging to the guides, where meals are usually cooked and eaten before returning. Many parties also spend days here in one of the camps, the charge being 25c. per night for each person. Before returning we may row up the inlet of the lake as far as (1/2 hr.) the Elt Lake Trail (sec below) and then follow the general course of the stream (avoiding paths to the left) to (20 min.) Panorama Bluff, which commands a splendid View, of the mountains (from left to right: Allen, Skylight, Marcy, Haystack, Bartlett, Basin, Saddleback, Gothics, Resegonia). Roufe to Mt. Marcy, see p. 192.—A trail beginning about 13/4 M. above the Upper Ausable Lake, a little beyond the Marcy trail (p. 192), leads to the E. over the Boreas Mt. Range to (51/2 M.) Elk Lake (1980 ft.), whence a road leads S. to (5 M.) the road from Tahawus (p. 194) to Schroon River P. O. (p. 194; 5 M. to the E.).

SHORT WALKS. The Russell Falls are reached in 10 min by a path descending from the back (S.W. corner) of St. Hubert's Inn - The foot of Roaring Brook Falls, descending for about 300 ft. over a clift on the W. side of the Giant, is about 3/4 M. to the E. of the hotel. We follow the Port Henry road to (10 min.) the fork, turn to the left, cross a small bridge, and then cross a field to the right to bars leading into the wood. The cart-track in a straight direction leads to the foot of the falls. By following the Port Henry road for 1/2 M. farther, we reach Chapel Pond (1600 ft.; right). A steep path, a little farther on, to the left, ascends to (20-30 min.) the Génér's Weakbows (2250 ft.), a solitary mountain-tarn at the foot of a gigantic cliff. A new trail (marked by 'blazes' on the trees) leads hence to the W. to (1 M.) the top of Roaring Brook Falls (see above), whence we regain the road by descending on the right side of the stream (a round in all of 4-5 M., taking 2-3 hrs.). - With the last-mentioned walk may be combined a visit (2 hrs. more) to Round Pond and Boquet Falls (trails indistinct; guide desirable). - To reach the (3 M.) Cathedral Rocks we follow the Ausable Lake road for 1/2 M. and then cross a rustic bridge to the right. With this may be combined a visit to the small Cathedral Falls (someone to point out the way desirable). - Artist's or Chapel Brook, 11/2 M. We proceed as in the Roaring Brook Walk to (20 min.) the bars leading into the wood, and follow the first path to the right. The scenery somewhat resembles the Torrent Walk at Dolgelley.

ASCENTS. The following ascents are condensed, by permission, from papers by Mr. Fronk W. Freeborn in Appaiachia (p. 135). Experts may dispense with guides in the first six. — "Noon Mark (3500 ft.; 1½,2½); hrs.). We diverge to the right from the Chapel Pond road, just beyond the last cottage on the right (Prof. Felix Adler's), and follow the broad path, which soon climbs along the left side of a ravine to (35-45 min.) a bare ledge (view). The path then follows a gentle ridge and (in 25.35 min.) begins to ascend steeply to (30.40 min.) the fop. The "View includes Kerne Val-ley and its bounding mountains, Mt. Dix, with its curious knob (S.), Nipple-top, and the Marcy group. - Mt. Colvin (4074 ft.; 2-3 hrs.). The path leaves the Ausable Lakes road to the left, about 1/4 M. on this side of the lower lake, and ascends the left side of Indian Head (p. 191; sign-boards). 35 min. Path to (5 min.) Wizard's Wathbowl, to the left. ½ hr (1.) Path to (8 min.) High Folls. 5 min. (1) Trail to Fairy Ladder Falk and Wipplet (10) (3) 1. 35 min. (1.) High white elift, a little beyond which are a large rock and a small spring (r.). 20 min. Top (highest point reached by ladders). The "View to the N. includes the Ausable Lakes and the highest ladders). The 'View to the N. Includes the Aussaule Dakes and the Inglesh peaks of the Adirondacks (named from left to right: Skylight, Marcy, Haystack, Basin, Saddleback, Gothic, with Sawteeth in front, and Wolf's Jaws). — 'Gaint of the Valley (4622 ft.; 29/g-39/g- hrs.). The path diverges to the left from the track to Roaring Brook Falls, just beyond the bars (1250 ft.) mentioned at p. 190. 12-16 min. We follow the path to the left. 15-20 min. Corduroy Bridge, beyond which we follow 'blazes' through the model to the left and exact (3 min.) the brook 4 footswent retail also the wood to the left and reach (3 min.) the brook. A foot-worn trail, also indicated by blazes, ascends hence steadily for 1-11/4 hr. (The right branch at the fork is of easier gradient.) Then follows \(\frac{1}{2}\) in the scramble over rocks to the end of the S. spur. Hence to the top \(\frac{1}{2}\) h, its scramble over rocks to the end of the S. spur. Hence to the top \(\frac{1}{2}\) h, in ever. (A little to the N.E. of the Signal is a small pool of water, The volve includes Lake Champlain and the Green Mts.; and Mt. Washington (p. 144) is said to be visible in clear weather. - Hopkins Peak (3135 ft.; 21/2-3 hrs.). We follow the road down the valley for about 3 M., and before reaching the Tahawus Ho. (p. 180) turn to the right and cross the Assade. We then turn to the right and follow the road to (10 min.) a hose, at the back of which the path begins. 11/2-13/4 hr. Spring, a little house, at the back of the control of the back of Baxter (2400 ft.; 11/2-21/2 hrs). The path begins about 3/4 M. to the W. of the cottage of 'Old Mountain Phelps', which is <sup>3</sup>/<sub>2</sub>, M. from the Tahawus Ho. The "Baleony, a bare ledge on the W. summint, commands a splendid View of Keene Valley, and it is hardly worth while to climb (20 min. more) to the top of the highest (middle) peak. — The Gothics (4740 ft.; 21/2-31/2 hrs.). The trail begins to the right of the Ausable Lake road, 2 M. from St. Hubert's Inn. It is not very clear at first, but, after crossing 2 M. from St. Hubert's Inn. It is not very clear a first, but, after crossing (f/h hr.) the Ausable, improves. 3 min. Cascade. 1/2 hr. Ridge at right angles to our course, which the trail skirls to the right. 1/2 hr. Hollow, with swampy pool. The (15-20 min.) top commands a good near 'View of Mt. Marcy, with Mt. McIntyre to its right. Lake Placid and Whiteface are seen in the distance (N). Dix Mt. with its singular notch, is conspicuous to the E. — 2Mt. Marcy or Tahasus (Cloud-splitter; 3345 ft.; two days; guide necessary), the lighest of the Adrondacks. This is a grand but somewhat fatiguing excursion, which should not be lightly undertaken. The night is spent in Boulder Camp (see below), and the descent may be made to Adirondack Lodge (p. 193). Campers on the Upper Ausable Lake can make the trip in one day (ascent 4-5 hrs., descent 3-4 hrs.). The path (7 M. long) begins at the little bay called 'Cold Slough' in the inlet of Upper Ausable Lake, about 11/2 M. beyond its S. end, and at the inlet of Upper Ausable Lake, about 1/2 M. beyond its S. end, and at irrst crosses beggy ground. 25 min. Fath diverging to the left (our path irrst crosses beggy remained to the control of the contr a tract of low balsams to (25 min) the open ledges, beyond which there is no trail. The top is reached in 1/4 hr. more. The "View embraces the whole of the Adirondacks, with Lake Champlain and the Green Mts. to the E. To the S.E., between us and the dark Haystack, lies the deep and narrow Panther Gorge (3550 ft.). At our feet (S.W.) lies the Tear of the Clouds, a small lake 4320 ft. above the sea, which is the highest source of the Hudson. The trail from the top to Adironduck Lodge is 71/2 M. long (p. 193). — Among other mountains that may be ascended from Keene Valley, with guides, are Dix M. (842? ft., one long day), Maystack (4918 ft.; one day), Nipptchey (4685 ft.; 8 hrs.), and Mt. Porter (E. end. 3790 ft.; 3½-2½ prs.).

Schroon Luke (p. 194) is reached from Keene Valley by the Part Henry to skeep, 1891, to (8 M.) Euba Milk, and thence as at p. 183. — There is no very direct or easy route connecting Keene Valley with the Long Lake and Bive Mountain district. Perhaps the best route is by the trail over the Boreas Mt. Eange (p. 194) or by the Tadamsu Trait (see below). Or we may go via Saranac Luke as described at p. 186. Lastly, we may return by train, via Westport, to Sarotoga, and proceed thence as in R. 25d.

*Adirondack Lodge (2160 ft.; $ 4 a day, from $ 16 a week), a comfortable little hotel, completely hidden in the dense forest to the N. of Mt. McIntyre and 5 M. from the highroad (transfer-coach $ 1; comp. p. 189), is a favourite resort of anglers, sportsmen, and pedestrians. It is tastefully built in the style of a rustic log-house, while the internal fittings are in a corresponding style, the bark being left intact on part of the furniture. In front of the house lies the pretty little Clear Lade, reflecting the form of Mount Jo, opposite Mt. McIntyre. The view from the tower extends over an ocean of forest, with not a sign of human habitation. Beyond the hotel (to the S.) all roads cease, and the only means of communication are 'trails' through the virgin forest, sometimes followed by the 'blazes' only (guides generally desirable). — Indian Pass, see below.

Excussions. To Analanche Loke, 5 M. The trail leads to the S. through the woods. This pretty little lake (286 ft.) lies between M. McIntyre and Mt. Colden. The trail is continued along its W. side to (11/4 M.) Loke colden (2770 ft.; log-camp). From Lake Colden a trail leads to the W. to (7 M.) the Adirondack plant produced to the W. to (7 M.) the Adirondack plant produced to the W. to (8 M.) (9-10 hrs.; guide necessary).

The trail begins at the S. end of Char Lake and leads through the woods. A divergence of a few hundred yards on either side of the path would bring us into virgin forest, where, perhaps, no white man had even before. After about 5 M. (2 hrs.) we reach a small open camp, where meals are sometimes cooked by the guide. The next mile involves a good deal of rough clambering over rocks (no danger) and leads us to (1/2 hr.) The headwaters of the Hudson, flowing to the S., and the Ausable, flowing to the N., rise here so close to one another that they are said to mingle in time of flood. [Those who do not wish to go on by this route to the Slue Mt. country may turn back here, as this view commands the entire pass and the trail farther on is rough and neglected. Good walkers by the Lake Colden route (see p. 189), spending a night, if desired, at the Adirondack Club (see below).] Our path then begins to descend rapidly, at first over procks. Farther on it is easier and more gradual. In 5 M. The wooded sugarloaf hill to the right, beyond Hadley, is known as the Potash Kettle (1735 ft.). The valley contracts, and the hills are prettily wooded. — 49 M. Riverside (815 ft.) is the starting-point of the stage-coaches for (7 M.) Schroon Lake (see below).

The ocaches run viå (6 M.) the Petter-stite Hesses (5 2, D. 75c.) to the landing one lower and of the book, whose a small steamer place to the hotels at its (9 M.) head (fare from Riverside 5 2, all outshing at the Watch Rock Hotel (33 1/4), on the E. shore, the Papler Heure (8 91/4-3) on the W. shore, and other points. — Schroon Lake (807 R.), 10 M. long and 1.2 M. wide, is surrounded by rugged hills and affords good fishing. Near its head lies the village of Schroon Lake, with numerous hotels, the largest of which are the Letand House (8 3-3 1/4), the Adviandack in (3 20/4), the Ondame (8 2), and the Window (8 11/6). The road (stages) to the N. runs hence vià (4 M.) the beautiful Peradox Lake and Schroon River Post Office (9. 188) to (22 M.) Euba Mills (p. 188), where it forks, one branch going to (6 M.) Keene Valley (p. 190), the other to (10 M.) Ethabeltheum (p. 188).
