34 M. Westminster (700 ft.); 49 M. Bruceville (415 ft.), for (17 M.) Frederick (p. 291). 69 M. Blue Ridge (1375 ft.), where the line crosses the summit of the Blue Ridge Mts., is the station for Monterey Springs (hotel). 70 M. Buena Vista, connected by tramway with (2 M.) Buena Vista Spring Hotel. — 71 M. Pen-Mar (1200 ft.; Cascade Ho.; Imperial), named from its situation on the boundary between Pen(sylvania) and Mar(yland), is one of the most popular resorts in the Blue Ridge Mts. A fine view of the Cumberland and Shenandoah Valleys (pp. 256, 379) is obtained from (2 M.) **High Rock* (2000 ft.), and **Mt. Quirauk* (2500 ft.) is another good view-point. — 72 M. **Blue Mountain House* ($ 3½), a large and excellent hotel, is, perhaps, the best point for those who wish to stay a few days in the neighbourhood, being less invaded by the excursionist than Pen-Mar. — 75 M. Edgemont is the junction of the Cumberland Valley branch to Chambersburg (p. 260). 87 M. Hagerstown (p. 256); 93 M. Williamsport (p. 252). — 103 M. Cherry Run

FROM BALTIMORE TO HARRISBURG, 85 M., Northern Central R. R. in 2½-3½ hrs. — 7 M. Hollins; 46 M. Hanover Junction; 57 M. York; 83 M. Bridgeport. — 85 M. Harrisburg, see p. 256.

FROM BALTIMORE TO ANNAPOLIS, Annapolis & Baltimore Short Line (26 M.) in 1 hr., or B. & O. R. R. (38 M.) in 1-1½ hr. — The former skirts Chesapeake Bay (left), crossing several of its arms. The intermediate stations are unimportant.

26 M. Annapolis (The Maryland, $ 2½; board, even for one night, at Mrs. Kennedy's, 78 Prince George St., Mrs. Buchanan's, Maryland Ave., and Mrs. Handy's and Mrs. Iglehart's, Church Circle), the quaint and quiet little capital of Maryland, with 7604 inhab., is pleasantly situated at the influx of the Severn into Chesapeake Bay. It carries on a considerable trade in oysters. The traveller is advised to begin his visit with the **View from the dome* (200 ft. high) of the State House (apply to janitor), near the centre of the town. The Senate Room (to the right on entering) was the scene of Washington's surrender of his commission in 1783 and of the First Constitutional Convention in 1786. In front of the State House is a colossal Statue of Chief Justice Taney (1777-1864), by Rinehart. To the left is a Statue of Gen. De Kalb (1721-80). The Old City Hotel was once frequented by George Washington (adm. on application to janitor). Some of the old colonial houses and churches are interesting (comp. p. lxxxix), but the chief lion of Annapolis is the **United States Naval Academy*, founded in 1845 for the education of officers for the navy, as West Point (p. 168) was for army officers. The cadets, of whom there are about 250, are nominated in the same way as the West Point cadets and are under similar discipline. The course of instruction comprises four years at the Academy and two at sea. Among the chief points of interest for visitors are the Old Ships; old Fort Severn, now a gymnasium; the Boat House, with its rigging-loft ballroom; the Seamanship House, with its models; the Steam House, for instruction in everything connected with steamships; the Armoury; and the Cadet Quarters, with mess-rooms, etc. The drills, parades, and fencing take place after 4 p.m., when the 'recitations' (classes) end.
